

BEHOLD THE LAMB MINISTRIES, UPDATE!

Get Ready! Get Ready! Get Ready!

"I saw that the strong hand of the enemy is set against the work, and the help and strength of every one who loves the cause of truth, should be enlisted; and great interest manifested by them to uphold the hands of those who advocate the truth. And by steady watch-care, shut out the enemy. All should stand as one, united in this work. Every energy of their soul should be awake; for what is done must be done quickly.

"I then saw the third angel. Said my accompanying angel, 'Fearful is his work. Awful is his mission. He is the angel that is to select the wheat from the tares, and seal or bind the wheat for the heavenly garner. These things should engross the whole mind, the whole attention.'

"Some, I saw, had not a realizing sense of the importance of the truth, or its effects, and often moved from the impulse of the moment, or from excitement, following their feelings, and disregarding church order, thinking that religion consists chiefly in making a noise. Some who have but just received the truth of the third angel's message, are ready to reprove and teach those who have been established in the truth for years, and have felt its sanctifying power, and have suffered for the truth's sake. Those who are so puffed up by the enemy will have to feel the sanctifying influence of the truth, and will have to have a realizing sense of where the truth found them, and how; that they were 'wretched, miserable, and poor and blind and naked.'

"When the truth begins to purify them and purge away their dross and tin, as it surely will when it is received, in the love of it, the one who has this great work done for him will not feel that he is rich and increased in goods, and has need of nothing.

"Those who profess the truth, and before they have learned its first principles, think they know it all, and are forward to take the place of teachers, and reprove those who for years have stood stiffly for the truth, plainly show that they have no understanding of the truth, and know none of its effects; for if they knew any of its sanctifying power, they would yield the peaceable fruits of righteousness, and be humbled under its sweet, powerful influence. They would bear fruit to the glory of God, and understand what the truth has done for them, and esteem others better than themselves.

"I saw that the remnant were not prepared for what is coming upon the earth. Stupidity, like the lethargy, seemed to hang upon the minds of most of those who profess to believe that we are having the last message. My accompanying angel cried out with awful solemnity, 'Get ready! get ready! get ready! for the fierce anger of the Lord is soon to come. His wrath is to be poured out unmixed with mercy, and ye are not ready. Rend the heart, and not the garment. A great work must be done for the remnant. They are, many of them, dwelling upon little trials.' Said the angel, 'Legions of evil angels are around you, and are trying to press in their awful darkness, that ye may be ensnared and taken. Ye suffer your mind to be diverted too readily from the work of preparation, and the all-important truths for these last days. And ye dwell upon little trials, and go into minute particulars of little difficulties to explain them to the satisfaction of this one or that.' Conversation has been protracted [drawn out/lengthened in time] for hours between the parties concerned, and not only has their time been wasted, but the servants of God are held to listen to them, when the hearts of both parties are unsubdued by grace. If pride and selfishness were laid aside, five minutes would remove most difficulties. Hours have been spent in justifying self, which has grieved angels, and displeased God. I saw that God will not wait and bow down and listen to long justifications, and he did not want his servants to do so, and precious time be wasted, that should be spent in showing transgressors the error of their ways, and pulling souls out of the fire.

"I saw that God's people were on the enchanted ground; and some have lost nearly all sense of the shortness of time, and the worth of the soul. Pride has crept in among Sabbath-keepers, pride of dress and appearance. Said the angel, 'Sabbath-keepers will have to die to self, die to pride and love of approbation [praise].'

"Truth, saving truth, must be given to the starving people, who are in darkness. I saw that many prayed for God to humble them; but if God answered their prayer, it would be by terrible things in righteousness. It was their duty to humble themselves. I saw that if self-exaltation was suffered to come in, it would surely lead souls astray, and if not overcome, prove their ruin. When one begins to get lifted up in his own eyes, and thinks he can do something, the Spirit of God is withdrawn, and he goes on in his own strength until he is overthrown. One saint, I saw, could move the arm of God if he were right; but a multitude together, if they were wrong, would be weak, and could effect nothing.

"I saw that many had unsubdued, unhumbled hearts, and were thinking more of their own little grievances and trials than the souls of sinners. If they had the glory of God in view, they would feel for perishing souls around them; and as they realized their perilous situation, would take hold with energy, exercising faith in God, and hold up the hands of his servants, that they may boldly, yet in love, declare the truth, and warn souls to lay hold upon it, before the sweet voice of mercy dies away.

"Said the angel, "Those who profess His name are not ready." I saw the seven last plagues were coming upon the shelterless heads of the wicked; and then those who have stood in their way will hear the bitter reproaches of sinners, and their hearts will faint within them."

Supplement to the Christian Experience and Views of Ellen G. White, Pages 38-41.

Hello, friends! After praying about what we should share with you in this "update," the words, "get ready, get ready, get ready," swiftly came to my mind. I knew I had read them before somewhere. So upon doing a word search for them among Mrs. White's writings, I found the previous quotes that I felt were so very pertinent to share with God's people. In what you just read, so adequately summarizes our heart's burden and the work of this ministry. The more we study, the more we have an the overwhelming sense of our sinful, sleeping condition—and the more we see our nation, our loved ones, and our friends becoming drunk with lawlessness and immorality.

The enemy of souls never slumbers or sleeps, and he is doing his job of diverting the minds of men from the truth very, very well! You've heard it said from this ministry so many times in the past that the "truth" of God's Word is becoming "error," and "error," is becoming "truth" in the minds of the masses. Our hearts ache as we see even the leaders of our nation reversing their long-held beliefs and accepting immorality as acceptable behavior! I can't tell you how many times Pastor Kenny and myself have heard news anchors in the past few months justify immoral behavior has being OK now because, "it's now 2013!" As if the year itself has the power to change behavior that the God of Heaven states is an abomination to Him! Friends, our legislators are now passing bills, new laws, legalizing immoral lifestyles. And those who are doing their best to speak up against it are now labeled as the trouble makers, haters, Christians who do not have the love of Christ in their hearts! Can you see what's happening! As a whole nation we have been brainwashed through the media, schools, and congregations to accept the enemy's theology and feel justified in NOT accepting all of God's Word as our moral standard! WE ARE BRINGING UPON OURSELVES A TIME OF TROUBLE AS HAS NEVER BEFORE BEEN EXPERIENCED IN THIS WORLD. We are inviting God's wrath upon ourselves—there is NO one else to blame! So, as stated in the quote above, any work that is done for the saving of souls, "MUST BE DONE QUICKLY!"

Why else is Behold the Lamb Ministries in existence? Why else have we shared our need of financial and prayerful support? As the work has increased and become larger and more intense over the years, so has our need of support and unity of purpose—again as stated in the previous quote, "the help and strength of every one who loves the cause of truth, should be enlisted; and great interest manifested by them to uphold the hands of those who advocate the truth."

Read and reread the quote in the beginning of this article. We fail to realize all that is at stake! Our hearts grieve for the salvation of souls. We pray daily for more "doors" to be open for the sharing and acceptance of truth! And, oh, how it aches to meet with people who feel that they are increased with life's pleasures and in need of nothing! Yet, they are "blind, poor, and naked," whose only hope of salvation is accepting Christ and following Him wherever He leads. Acceptance and following in obedience, friends, are BOTH vital to our salvation! So please don't be fooled by thinking that you only have to "believe" and you'll be saved. The devil "believes" and trembles!

We pray daily for conviction and conversion of the thousands who have the opportunity to tune in to the God-given messages of Behold the Lamb Ministries that are currently being proclaimed via 3ABN, our website, YouTube, and the radio. We also continue to pray for more opportunities for our messages to be aired in greater frequency as well as at other times of the day so as to be heard by more people.

God has greatly blessed and humbled us with literally hundreds of calls, requests, and letters. It has been a challenge for so few of us to keep up with, but it is a challenge we NEVER want to be without! If anything, we pray that the Lord will provide more work for our ministry and more workers to help keep up with the needs of those who are hungering and thirsting for righteousness!

We would like to share briefly just a few excerpts of some of the letters we have received:

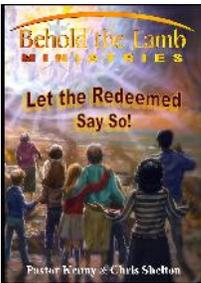

"Thank you for faithfully sending DVDs, etc. throughout the year. We depend on them ..." Gloria J., TX. "Praise the Lord! God's messages through Pastor Kenny are still coming through loud and clear! ... our hearts are truly blessed"! ... Richard and Betty S., SC. "... We love you all. [Through] your ministry, He gives us blessings and His help to make us stronger ..."

Raymond B., NY. "... I thank you for all the DVDs you have sent me. They have helped me in my Bible studies and everyday life. The best of all of it, is that a very dear friend of mine ... is enjoying watching them also. She had given up on going back to church until we met again ... She came back to the Lord and got re-baptized into the Jacksonville 1st Seventh-day Adventist Church. ... Thank you all for your ministry. It has brought me closer to God and His Son"! Bill W., FL. "Hi, I really enjoy listening to Pastor Kenny. He doesn't sugarcoat his sermons, he tells it like it is right out of the scriptures." Marlene S., email. "I have been mesmerized by your last day messages, I am a Sabbath keeper for 13 years. ... I went to your web site and noticed you could still have time this year to visit our church. I really feel we are in need of your message. ... I need a revelation, and I know the Lord has impressed the Holy Spirit to give you a willing heart and mind to spread the gospel. Amen, please come." Jeff W., email.

We pray that God has touched your heart through this evangelistic update to draw ever so close to Him in truth. Please keep us in your prayers and on your list to support as we work together in finishing this great work of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. In Christian love, Pastor Kenny, Sister Chris, and your BTLM family!

When the Lord returns, we will find that there will only be two classes of people at that time; the redeemed and the lost. And this is only because we have a Saviour, Jesus Christ, who first came to this earth as a baby, and later He gave His life on a cruel-rugged cross to pay our debt to sin. He redeemed us from the enemy of souls—He paid the price for sin that was ours to pay, and not His. But because He loves you and me so very much, He was willing to pay the cost of transgressing God's law, which is death. The "redeemed" only exist because of Christ. The "redeemed" may sing and praise the Father only because of Christ. We were bought with the heavy price of His life.

This prophecy is spoken of in the book of Revelation, chapter 14. John is looking into the future of the redeemed and he is describing a group of people who are standing with Christ on Mount Zion. This group has their Father's name written upon their foreheads; they sing a song that only they are able to learn; they are described as being pure and having had followed Christ wherever He had led them. John says that these are the "firstfruits" to God, and to the Lamb, and that they were without fault before the throne of God. This is a beautiful description of harmony with God and the salvation of the redeemed. But what bothers many of us who read this prophecy, is that these people who are redeemed, and standing with the Lamb on Mount Zion, are numbered. But more importantly, we are told that there are only 144,000 of them. So it begs the question, "Who are these people?"

Throughout all Christian history, God's people were blessed to be given direction of Heaven through a man, or woman, whom God called to be a prophet. These persons were first called seers; no doubt because they were able to see into the future what God chose to reveal. It is through prophecy that we are given insight into the end of this world's history and encouraged to get our hearts and lives ready to meet the coming tribulation and triumphant return of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. We are most blessed to have this prophetic information as given us through the prophets of old. But what about today? Is this gift still in existence? How important is it in God's New Testament Church? And how may we know that the prophecy given is of God and not a false spirit? Enjoy this two-part series as these, and many more, questions are answered concerning this timely issue!

Who Is My Neighbor? In Leviticus instruction is given that we are to love our neighbor as ourselves. Christ, Himself, repeated these words as He walked among men on this earth. In fact, we find that loving our neighbor summarizes the last six of God's commandments that He wrote with His very own finger! Yet, as in the story of the Good Samaritan, we find it difficult to fully grasp just who our neighbors really are. We've built up many walls of prejudice in such areas as economic status, race, religion, education, and so on. Anyone outside of our created circles of acceptance, we declare NOT to be our neighbors. Therefore, we conclude that we are not bound by Scripture to love them as ourselves. But is this truly what is being taught in God's Word? Many Sadducees and Pharisees thought so, but what about YOU? What are your thoughts about who your neighbors are? Most importantly, how are you lining up with the Word of God on this topic? And does it really matter whether we love our neighbor anyway? We know you will be lifted up and blessed as you watch and study along with this two-part series as it addresses and Biblically answers these, and many more, questions concerning just who our neighbors really are!

Spiritual Formation sounds somewhat innocent by definition. But as one becomes more familiar with its evolution into the various mainstream churches of today, we find it has new proponents such as is termed, "contemplative prayer," "spiritual discipline," and so on. So is adopting Spiritual Formation into our churches, or into our personal lives a blessing? Or, is it possibly a curse? a wolf, as it were, disguised in sheep's clothing?

In these inspiring messages, we look back into the life of one of the greatest reformers in history, Martin Luther. Our study of Martin Luther is not to focus just upon him, but rather to compare his character to that of God's last day church—God's last day people. Luther was labeled a heretic for the wonderful truths he was learning and publishing from the Scriptures. He was asked to recant all the writings he had thus published before being issued the papal bull Exsurge Domine in 1520, by Pope Leo X. Knowing that his position in the church and even his life was at stake, Luther concluded much of the debate with this reply, "Unless I am convinced by proofs from Scriptures or by plain and clear reasons and arguments, I can and will not retract, for it is neither safe nor wise to do anything against conscience. Here I stand. I can do no other. God help me. Amen." Oh, that all of God's remnant people would but NOW exhibit such faith, trust, and fortitude towards Him and His Word!
